ProtexHA High Availability systems are designed to meet the requirements of Local Authorities and other organisations providing web services to academies, schools, libraries and other sites caring for young people. Based on extremely reliable and proven hardware they offer a highly resilient and scalable solution designed to run 24x7.

Unlike other systems there is no restriction on the number of users – ProtexHA hardware is dimensioned in accordance with your throughput requirement.